

Graduation

2003

Saturday, May 10, 2003, 7:30 p.m.
Queensway Cathedral
1563 The Queensway, Etobicoke, Ontario

Thank you for helping to make this service of celebration a wonderful event for all. Please ensure that all pagers and cell phones are turned off. The nursery is open for all infants and young children. Since it is not staffed, please remain with your children. If you would like to take pictures during the ceremony, please proceed to the balcony to the right of the platform for the best view. The front section of the lower auditorium is not accessible for photography. Seating for the hearing impaired is available at the front of the auditorium.

Prelude

Processional (please stand)

Gladys W. Chan, Registrar

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven; To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Evermore His praises sing
Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favour To our fathers in distress,
Praise Him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless,
Alleluia, alleluia,
Glorious in His faithfulness.

Fatherlike, He tends and spares us, Well, our feeble frame He knows,
In His Hands, He gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes;
Alleluia, alleluia,
Widely as His mercy flows.

Frail as summer's flower we flourish; Blows the wind and it is gone;
But, while mortals rise and perish, God endures unchanging on.
Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise the high eternal One.

Angels, help us to adore Him; Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon bow down before Him; Dwellers all in time and space.
Alleluia, alleluia,
Praise with us the God of grace.

Congregational Hymn

To Worship, Work, and Witness

(To the tune of Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus)

To worship, work, and witness, The Good News spread abroad,
We magnify thy mission, Church of the living God;
The Father's new creation Thro' Jesus Christ his Son,
The Spirit has empowered To do as Christ has done.

Be thine thy Master's purpose To seek and save the lost,
To ransom those in bondage, To dare nor count the cost;
To love and lift the lowly, To heed the pris'ner's groan,
To take up others' burdens And bear them as thine own.

Be thou to Christ his body, Hold fast to Christ thy Head;
Be thou Christ's open letter By all men to be read;
Be thou Christ's holy temple, Himself the cornerstone;
Be thou Christ's living altar Whereon His love is shown.

Head of the Church, inspire us To have in us Thy mind,
To humbly wait thy guidance, Thy joy in serving find.
Bestow the Spirit's grace gifts To serve the common good,
While helping each the other To love thy brotherhood.

Lead On, O King Eternal

Lead on, O King Eternal. The day of march has come,
Henceforth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home.
Thro' days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper The sweet amen of peace,
For not with swords' loud clashing, Or roll of stirring drums,
With deeds of love and mercy The heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal. We follow, not with fears,
For gladness breaks like morning Where'er Thy face appears.
Thy cross is lifted o'er us, We journey in its light
The crown awaits the conquest, Lead on, O God of might.

Reception to follow.

Distinguished Alumni 2003

Tyndale College

David K. Mensah (BRE), 1982

David Mensah was born in Ghana and emigrated to Canada in 1979 to attend Tyndale College. He continued in his studies to earn a Master of Arts at Acadia University and a PhD from St. Michael's College of the University of Toronto, and taught at Tyndale from 1986-1990. In 1990, David and his wife Brenda and their three daughters returned to Ghana to direct an organization founded by David prior to his arrival in Canada, the Northern Empowerment Association (NEA). This organization addresses some of the most difficult problems in Northern Ghana, namely severe poverty, malnutrition and starvation, lack of clean water, disease, and the absence of the gospel. In 1996, the NEA was selected by the Government of Ghana as the best development organization in Northern Ghana. David was chosen by the Government of Canada through its Canadian High Commission in Ghana to design a program which brought reconciliation between two warring tribes. Since 1994, he has coordinated the Canada Fund for Local Initiatives, which has established schools, clinics, women's projects, and environmental projects in many communities. He has also served as the Principal at the Laurenda International School since 1993. In 1998, David published the book Kwabena: An African Boy's Journey of Faith, which is about to go into its fourth printing.

Tyndale Seminary

Makram Barsoum (MTS), 1988

Makram Barsoum was born in El-Minia, Egypt and emigrated to Canada in 1974. He earned a Master of Science degree in Applied Science from the University of Toronto, and was recognized as a Professional Engineer in 1977. As an engineer, Makram worked in the Canadian nuclear and aerospace industries, concentrating his efforts on the Canada Arm and Space Station Freedom. Along the way, Makram completed his Master of Theological Studies degree at Tyndale Seminary in 1988. In 1996, Makram and his wife Mona were appointed jointly by the mission organization InterServe and the Presbyterian Church in Canada to serve in the Middle East with SAT-7 Media Service, a multiple-partner project providing Christian satellite television service in the Arabic language to people in the Middle East, North Africa, and Europe. While Makram began his work with SAT-7 in Nicosia, Cyprus, he has guided the establishment of SAT-7's audience and church relations department in Lebanon, Egypt, and France. Makram is currently the Director of Program Acquisitions & Scheduling. His prayer is that through his work, millions of people in the Middle East will experience the transforming power of the Christian Gospel. The Barsoums have three children: Sherien, Philip, and Christopher.

Honourary Doctorate 2003

Dave Toycen

Dave Toycen is President and Chief Executive Officer of World Vision Canada. Dave is a passionate advocate for children, and in his 30 years with World Vision he has worked tirelessly on behalf of those who face poverty and injustice. Since he became President of World Vision Canada in 1996, he has guided the organization into a phase of dramatic growth and into greater involvement in advocacy and justice issues. Dave's faith is at the core of his commitment to holistic ministry. His care for the poor is inspired by Isaiah's vision of a new earth where poverty and despair are eradicated (Isaiah 65) and by Christ's challenge to "let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:16). In the past 20 years, Dave has been on-site during almost every major humanitarian disaster to provide assessment and support. In all, more than $1.3 billion has been raised in aid and development for the poor under his leadership. A Canadian citizen, Dave Toycen studied at Lawrence University (BA) and Fuller Theological Seminary (MDiv). Dave and his wife Diane have two children, Jaymes and Jocelyn, and one granddaughter.

Professor Emeritus 2003

Brian D. Cunningham, Professor of Counselling Ministries, 1991-2003

Born and raised in Toronto, Dr. Brian Cunningham studied at the University of Toronto, University of Ottawa, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in education, counselling and psychology. He began teaching Counselling Ministries at Tyndale College & Seminary in 1986 on a part-time basis, while studying for his PhD at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto. He joined the faculty full-time as Professor and Director of the Counselling Program at the Seminary in 1991.

Dr. Cunningham is a Clinical Member and Approved Supervisor with the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists, and has had his own Marriage and Family Therapy practice since 1989. He also serves as Clinical Director at the Chartwell Institute for Care and Counselling in Oakville. His annual newsletter to Counselling Alumni has demonstrated his care for students beyond the classroom.

Earlier this year, Dr. Cunningham was also recognized by his Seminary faculty colleagues with a unanimous vote for the Faculty Excellence Award, which recognizes his outstanding leadership as a classroom teacher, student mentor, program director, department head, and committee member.

Dr. Cunningham continues his research and writing in "Philosophical Foundations and Clinical Implications of Narrative Therapy for Counselling in a Christian Context." He has also graciously agreed to serve as Interim Academic Dean at the Seminary for the 2003-2004 academic year, and will continue to teach a few Counselling courses. He and his wife Karleen have two children, Allison and Glenn, and they worship at Unionville Alliance Church.
